Voter Information Seminar Recap

On Thursday, May 30th, Director Derek Bowens presented the first of six seminars for Durham County regarding the new North Carolina photo identification requirements with collaboration from the North Carolina State Board of Elections. Attendees were provided important information on the new requirements that will become effective in 2020 and had the opportunity to obtain a new NC Voter Identification Card (always free of charge) on site.

Durham Board of Elections members Pamela Oxendine and Michael Gray display their free NC Voter ID Card. This new ID card is just one of the acceptable forms of ID beginning in 2020.

Director Derek Bowens presents Durham County's first seminar. These seminars will be held through August 2019.

Registered voters were able to obtain a free NC Voter ID Card on site. This card is not the only acceptable form of ID that can be used starting in 2020. To see a full list of acceptable ID's, visit our website: www.dcovotes.com.
